

(NA) NAMIBIA

NOTE: Most instruction within Namibia is given in English, but some institutions employ Afrikaans and German. Namibian students are also eligible to participate in educational programs offered in South Africa and to receive South African awards. Namibian students who have studied in the home country will present South African credentials for any work completed prior to 1989, when South Africa relinquished control of Namibian affairs. Refer to the award listing for South Africa as appropriate.

(NR) NAURU

NOTE: Nauru possesses no known secondary or postsecondary educational system. Nauruan students seeking secondary education commonly go to Australia, where they are eligible to enroll. Nauruans possessing appropriate secondary credentials are eligible to attend the University of the South Pacific, of which Nauru is a consortium member. An extension division of that institution is located in Nauru to provide training for Nauruan teachers, and the relevant extension awards are listed below. Refer to the award listings for Australia and for Fiji and Samoa (University of the South Pacific main campuses) as appropriate.
